PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis is not in the chamber. You do not want to consider it. All right. There is a motion to reconsider by Senator Frank Lewis. His request that the matter not be considered at this time. Are there any other motions to reconsider?

CLERK: Not at this time, yet.

PRESIDENT: Motions to advance bills from Committee.

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Other pending motions. The chair recognizes Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. President and members of the body, I am asking the chair for a repeat, I guess, on the action taken on the motion just mentioned. The motion was made to what, please?

PRESIDENT: Senator Frank Lewis made a motion to reconsider LR 4. I said Senator Lewis was not in the chamber and he waved and said he was and said he didn't want to take it up now. That may be considered that he requested to have it laid over. Senator Lewis.

SENATOR LEWIS: As I understand the Rules, I can make that request and then I have five days at which time to bring that up, as I understand the Rules.

PRESIDENT: I think I would interpret Senator Lewis' statement as a request to lay over. He said he didn't want to take it up now. Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. President, is it in order for an objection to--it would appear to me that he asked unanimous consent to lay the motion over. If that is the case, I object.

PRESIDENT: The chair will make the ruling when it is made. Senator Dickinson, the Rules are silent on this specific point that you make, that is whether or not--I assume that your point is if you make a similar motion, if it can be disposed of now. It is the chair's ruling that Senator Frank Lewis has a right to make this motion and to take it up at a time suitable to him, so long as it is within five days, because he is the moving party. Unfinished business including messages on President's desk. Do you have any, Mr. Clerk?
